OVERPAID VET. HOUSING TAXES SAYS WHA

Wilmington's Board of Selectmen believe that the Wilmington Housing Authority owes the town $468, money 'in lieu of taxes' for 1959 for the Veterans Housing Project on Wildwood Street.

The W.H.A. on the other hand thinks that the correct sum is about $36, and that it has overpaid the town, for about eight years, the length of time that the Veteran's Project has been in existence.

The Housing Authority has paid a sum in excess of several hundred dollars, every year 'in lieu of taxes' for the housing development.

Monday night, at the Selectmen's meeting, Selectman Charles Black noted that there had been no 1959 payment of the money, and spoke about it during a joint meeting with the Housing Authority.

The Selectmen were told by WHA member Ernest Rice that the payment had been withheld because the WHA has run into a lot of replacement and renewal costs, which must be paid out of current revenue.

New type oil burners must be installed, the Selectmen were told. The original type were the 'pot' burners (since outlawed, Ed.) and must be replaced by a modern type. Many refrigerators have to be replaced also, and other work has to be done.

WHA Says Too Much

In the Tuesday night meeting of the Housing Authority the members were told by their attorney, Atty Melvin L. Levine, that the basis for the payment was wrongly arrived at and it should have been assessed on 'an average valuation for the three years preceding the taking of the land'.

Ernest Rice recalled that the 18 acres, of which one third was taken for the Veteran's project, was valued at $1800 prior to the taking of the land, and on this basis a rough calculation was made that, based on the current tax rate, the payment 'in lieu of taxes' would be about $36.

If such was the case, the members noted, the town had been overpaid for a number of years, and decided that a letter should be written to the Selectmen about it.

Atty Levine, in explaining the law, cited Chapter 121, General Laws, as amended, Section 26R.

FLORA KASABUSKI ELECTED TO W.H.A.

M. Flora Kasabuski, of Laite Road is the first woman ever elected to the Wilmington Housing Authority. She was sworn into office, Tuesday, by Town Clerk Esther Russell, after election Monday night by a joint meeting of the Selectmen and the Housing Authority.

Mrs. Kasabuski, an attorney, and on two occasions a candidate for election to the Wilmington School Committee, is an outspoken woman who now devotes most of her time to her duties as a housewife and mother.

She was elected to the WHA on the third ballot, Monday night after having been nominated by Selectman Mrs. Wavie Drew.

WHA member James Donahue had nominated Jack Hollaway, of Oakdale Road, No. Wilmington, a candidate for the WHA this spring, and he and Ernest Rice voted for Hollaway through the three ballots.

Selectman Donald Kidder had nominated William Coulter, of Carlen Court. Mr. Coulter was a candidate for the WHA several years ago.

Kidder voted for Coulter on the first two ballots, and then shifted to Mrs. Kasabuski while the other Selectmen extended 'senatorial courtesy' to Mrs. Drew by voting for her candidate through the three ballots cast.

By mutual agreement on the interpretation of the laws, it took five votes to elect a member to the WHA, a majority of those eligible to vote.

VOTER MARK PASSES 5000

The number of registered voters in Wilmington has reached 5030, during the past week, according to the Registrars of Voters. 15 new voters were registered during their meeting Monday night.

There are 823 registered Republicans, and 825 registered Democrats.

CHESTER HOWE RESCUED IN LYNN SHORE MISHAP

Chester Howe, 24 Grove Ave. was one of four men rescued by the US Coast Guard, while clinging to an overturned 14 foot skiff, off Lynn Shore, last Friday.

Howe and his companions had been in the water for half an hour, when rescued by the Coast Guard speedboat.

Wilmington's Republicans, with John A. Volpe of Winchester, nominee for Governor, in a picture taken at the White Spot, in Woburn, prior to Volpe's nomination. The Wilmington Republicans were with Volpe all the way.

In front are Selectman Charles A. Black, Mrs. Ruth Kitchener, Mr. Volpe, Selectman Mrs. Wavie Drew and Mrs. John Volpe.

In back are Mr and Mrs Sam Grant, Mrs. Frank Tuttle, Mrs. Howard Murphy, Ernest Ardolino, Mrs. Ardolino, Albert Kitchener, Mrs. Paul Godzyk, Paul Godzyk, Mrs. Winthrop Polsey and Mrs. Olive Sheldon, all of Wilmington.

SELECTMEN & READING B.P.W. WANT TO BE 'GOOD NEIGHBORS'

The Wilmington Board of Selectmen, and the Reading Board of Public Works, consisting of Sid Hodson, Phil Welch, Lloyd Harrison, and Lawrence Leonard parted, Monday night after a conference in Wilmington Town Hall, resolved to be 'good neighbors'.

The Reading board had visited the Selectmen to see if would be possible to purchase a 2.94 acre tract, in Wilmington, upstream on the Ipswich River from the Reading Water Pumping Station, off Strout Avenue in that town. The land is near one of their wells, and is located to the eastward of Route 93. It is a part of the 100 Acre Meadow, and is entirely cut off from access to Wilmington, by Route 93.

The Reading Board was told by Chairman Nick De Felice of the Wilmington Selectmen that they would be happy to consider the matter, after settlement of a case now pending, against the Commonwealth, for land taking for the new highway. It was important, he said, not to jeopardize Wilmington's position on the law suit pending. The land would have to be transferred as part of the action of a Town Meeting.

Selectman Black demurred to the extent of saying that Reading had not been a 'good neighbor' when Wilmington was trying to solve some drainage problems, some years ago.

He related the case of the legislative bills of 1952 and 1953, in which money was appropriated for a survey of the Ipswich to improve Wilmington drainage. After the survey Reading objected to the proposal, in the legislature, which stopped all action.

Phil Welch, who at that time was Town Engineer of Reading, recalled the details more clearly, and agreed that Reading (cont Pg 6)

EIGHTH GRADE GRADUATION SUNDAY

Graduation exercises for the eighth grade of the Wilmington Public Schools are planned for 4 pm Sunday, in the football stadium, behind Wilmington High School, with plans to postpone to Monday evening, at 7, if forced to by rain.

If the graduation is delayed it will be held outside, if not raining, otherwise in the High School gymnasium.

Ernest M. Crispo, Vice Chairman of the School Committee will give diplomas to 262 children.

JEANNE THANKS SELECTMEN

A letter from Jeanne Ashworth US Speed Skating Champion and Olympic Champion, read at the Selectmen's meeting, Monday night, extended her thanks for the courtesies shown her by the Selectmen.

Part of her letter said that she was 'proud to represent such a fine town as Wilmington and to have such enthusiastic and hard working supporters'.

A LITTLE RED PAINT NEEDED?

We are amused this week by the speech of Mr.
James L. McLaughlin, concerning the Town Crier.
We quote it in full.

It is not the first time that some one has made such an accusation, but the better men who have said so have subsequently apologized.

And Mr. McLaughlin's speech was made in a 'closed' meeting, which is entirely as may be expected. A year ago Mr. McLaughlin put out some literature for two prominent Democrats in Wilmington, lies which hurt those people.

They didn't denounce Jimmy behind closed doors. They stood up in open meeting to do it.

But what really amuses us is the charge of Communism. Perhaps we should buy a little red paint for our office?

GOVERNOR CURLEY'S CURBSTONES

Within himself man has two sources of inspiration, one that may be called Emotionalism and one that may be called Intellectualism.

Emotionalism is more common. It is the impulse type of thinking, without rationalization and some would call it "hot blooded thinking".

Intellectualism on the other hand is the ability to sit down and look at a problem before yielding to impulse. Some would call it
"cold blooded thinking".

Yankees of course, are supposed to be "cold blooded" but they are no more so than is any other race. Emotionalism and Intellectualism are not to be claimed by races, only by individuals.

Here in Wilmington, for about twenty years during the era of Roosevelt II we were often guided by Emotionalism. We rejected a lot of Federal and State "dole" on impulse - the idea being that we could stand on our own two legs.

We rejected the idea of building a High School, or of installing water mains on all accepted streets in town, with Wilmington paying for the materials and the WPA paying for the labor.

Tewksbury built the High School, and other towns put in the water mains. Wilmington did so later, and is still paying for the school it didn't build, and the one it did, and for the water mains that were not installed, and the ones that were later.

Wilmington's rejection was Emotionalism.

Another instance was that of the granite curbings along Route 38. Governor Curley proposed it. Wilmington rejected the idea, perhaps because some people believed that "graft" was involved.

Today there are granite curbings from Lowell to Woburn, along Route 38, except for that part that is in Wilmington. And Wilmington is helping to pay for those granite curbings that we didn't get.

All of which brings us up to the vote of the Selectmen, a week ago last night, when three of them voted for Urban Renewal, and two voted against.

Perhaps Urban Renewal is no good for Wilmington. Perhaps we don't want it.

But three of our Selectmen were intellectual enough in their thinking to say "Let's give it a second look". They voted an additional $3600 to be added to the $68,000 already spent.

They may or may not like the idea of Urban Renewal, but they aren't going to throw away curbstones just because they didn't like Governor Curley.

TOWN NOTES

Barney Had The Touch

We must report that Bernard McMahon, Wilmington High School Principal, had the magic touch, Sunday afternoon.

At 3:50 pm there were three drops of rain falling. Barney crossed his fingers, made a slight prayer, and the rain stopped to give very nice weather for the High School graduation.

The only rain this week was
.21 inches, day before yesterday.

Return, Please!

The public library has issued an appeal to school children to return the books they have borrowed, before the summer vacation begins.

Traffic Notes

We are told, now that route
93 is open, that some Wilmington children are being very careless on the new highway.
They ride bikes, cross over,
and we don't know what.

Neither will they know, if they happen to connect with a car doing about 90.

We are also told that some people are parking their cars in front of the No. Wilmington Postoffice, without using brakes or keeping them in gear.
Several cars have rolled out onto Middlesex Avenue recently with no accidents, so far.

Well, Knock Us Down

We have known John Savko, of Lawrence Street ever since he moved to Wilmington about five years ago, as a man who was interested in many things, but it wasn't until we read the account of the Pender- Sugar Ray Robinson fight, last Friday that we knew he had another string to his bow.

John, it turned out, was one of the judges at the fight.
Well, knock us down with a pinfeather!

Kindred Soul

Selectman Charles Black found a kindred soul, Monday night,
in the person of Phil Welch,
of the Reading Board of Public Works.

Black has been 'worrying' the subject of a missing Town Boundary, that marking the meeting point of Reading, No.
Reading and Wilmington, for the past year or so.

It disappeared during the construction of the new Route 93, and has never been seen since, despite reports to the contrary.

When Black mentioned the subject Mr. Welch was right with him. Campanella & Cardi (the Highway Contractor) knocked it down. Welch told Black.

CHARLES RIVER LABORATORIES MAKING FOURTH ADDITION

The fourth addition to the plant of the Charles River

A new complete telephone system, with switchboard, is being installed at the same time.

DEMOCRATS ENDORSE O'CONNOR AND THEN STAY UP ALL NIGHT
Democrats of Wilmington, last week, endorsed Thomas F. O'Connor, Mayor of Springfield for nomination at the Democratic Convention, this weekend, but they weren't exactly sure which post Mr. O'Connor was seeking.

Some thought he was seeking nomination for US Senator, and it was on this thought that he was nominated. Others then pointed out that they believed he was a candidate for Lt. Governor, so the endorsement was for the man, not the position.

Opposition at Meeting
James McLaughlin, of Shaw-sheen Avenue, titular head of the Wilmington Town Democratic Committee, had his cohorts present in force. The opposition was not present in large numbers.

After protesting that the meeting was illegal, because no proper 'organizational' meeting was yet held, the opposition said little during the meeting.

Ward for Governor
Joseph Ward was the choice of those voting, for nomination as the Democratic Candidate for Governor.

'Consult the Minutes'
Mr. McLaughlin proposed that the meeting be 'in confidence' and that no person be allowed to tell what happened at the meeting.

This brought a protest from one of the members that, if he missed a meeting, he wouldn't be able to tell what went on, next day, when he visited a lunch cart in the Square.

He was told that he could always consult the minutes of the meeting.

This brought a protest from another member that, if the minutes of the meeting were to be the only way to know, then the organizational meeting should have been held on the day after it was held, last May.

There was no answer to this remark.

McLaughlin's Speech
Chairman McLaughlin announced at one point during the meeting that he wished to relinquish the chair, as he wished to make a speech.

The Vice-Chairman took over. There was a hush in the room as McLaughlin began to talk.

'Those lies in the Town Crier', he said, 'They're lies! It's a Communist Paper!'

Then McLaughlin sat down, amidst a silence that was most profound.

All Night Sessions
The meeting was over early, and the group was divided into two parties.

One party went to a Shawshen Avenue home. The other party went to an out of town restaurant.

Both parties were in earnest consultation until nearly day-break. Neither side have made any announcement of what the two parties were all about.

SELECTMEN SIGN MORE BOUTWELL SCHOOL BONDS

The Board of Selectmen, Monday night, signed bonds for an additional hundred thousand dollars, for construction of the Boutwell Street School.

This is the second hundred thousand for which the Selectmen have signed, leaving two hundred thousand dollars still authorized, but un-borrowed.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH NEWS

An impressive Children's Day was observed at the 10 a.m. worship service on June 12th, with all departments of the Church School participating. The summer schedule of Sunday morning worship at 10 a.m. will commence next Sunday, June 19 with the following guest preachers invited to occupy the pulpit during the pastor's vacation: July 3rd, Rev. Clyde Martin, chaplain U.S.A.A.F. and former pastor; July 10, Mr. John Waters, Jr., student assistant of this church; July 17, Rev. David Smith of Wilmington, recently graduated from Bangor Theological Seminary; July 24th, Rev. Stanley Cummings, former pastor, now pastor in Buckland, Mass; July 31st, Mr. Waters.
'Family Sunday' will take place at 10 a.m. on Sept. 11th with all church families urged to attend worship service together.

Church School Registration will be held on Sunday, Sept. 18th, on which day the church will begin conducting two duplicate worship services, and Church School sessions - both at 9:30 and 11 a.m.

Monday, June 20th, the North Twigs will meet at the church at 6:45 p.m. prior to setting out for a mystery dinner. The group, not knowing where they are going, will follow a lead car to the site for their dinner.

Thursday, (note change of day June 23rd, the Boy Scouts will hold a supper at the church, cooking their meal on camp stoves made by the boys themselves. Their regular weekly meeting will take place in the vestry following supper.

A meeting of the church has been called for June 19th immediately following the 10 a.m. worship service. Child care will be provided during this meeting. The report of the Church Building Study Committee, included in the recent special issue of the church newsletter, will be acted upon at this meeting.

A new chrome communion set, recently voted for purchase, will be placed into use on World Wide Communion Day, the first Sunday in October.

The P.C.C. project, now well under way, was reviewed, and completed reports submitted at a morning coffee hour on June 8th. The majority of church families have already been visited by the many co-captains who have been assigned particular 'sectors'. If you wish to know what 'sector' your family is in, and who is the P.C.C. representative for your area, you may call the church office.

The East Branch terminated their meetings until Fall with a most enjoyable dinner at the Dominie Manse in Bedford on Tuesday, June 14th.

The last meeting of the L.B.S. at which officers were elected for the coming year, was held at the home of Mrs. May Bliss last week. A delicious luncheon was served and Mrs. Bernice Goldworthy was installed as president of the organization.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS DAY CAMP

All girls interested in the Camp Fire Girls Day Camp program at Camp Forty Acres from July 11 through July 28 may apply through their leaders or contact Betty Hanna at OL 8-2640. The camp will be open four days a week. Monday--Thursday. Bus transportation will be provided.

A very well-rounded program is being organized for the camp which will consist of archery, games, folk dancing, arts and crafts, nature and songs.

Anyone interested in becoming a counsellor or helping in any way, may contact either Mrs. Gertrude Bennett at OL 8-2548 or Betty Hanna, OL 8-2640.

Folders regarding this camp will be available to anyone interested in the program whether they are a Camp Fire Girl or not.

As this is the first year that an attempt has been made to have a Camp Fire Girls Day Camp, we hope it will meet with great enthusiasm and success in the town.

WILMINGTON CONGREGATION OF JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES TO TAKE PART IN MALDEN ASSEMBLY

Mr. Robert S. Jones, presiding minister of the Wilmington Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses has been named the head of the volunteer desk, for the semi-annual circuit to be held in Malden, on the weekend of June 24, 26.

Mr. Jones will have charge of all volunteers working at the assembly, and will oversee the placement of help in 15 or more convention departments. About 250 volunteer witnesses will work in some department during the three day program, with an estimated one worker to each six persons in attendance.

The Wilmington Congregation will share in much of the work and will meet with 21 other congregations at Malden High School. It is expected that 1800 will be present to hear Mr. Frank Spacil.

FIRST SHOWING OF TIROS PICTURES

The first showing of some Tiros Pictures, in Massachusetts, was at the Odd Fellows Lodge, last Tuesday. Dr. William Widger, meteorological expert, showed the pictures. With him are Vice Noble Grand Arthur Hoffman (center) and Noble Grand Walter J. Dalton, of Grove Ave.

dow, and dredging of the meadow was what the Town of Wilmington wanted, according to De Felice. He cited the work that had been done by North Reading towards improving the river in that town.

Mr. Black's remarks led several of the Reading representatives to realize the Wilmington situation. Mr. Hodson wanted to know if Avco was taking water from the Maple Meadow Brook where they had dug a pool, and was told that this was fire insurance only, and Mr. Leonard said that like Reading, Wilmington probably had sanitation problems, as a result of high water.

The group left after assurances on the part of the Wilmington Selectmen that there would only be a nominal charge for the land, when it could be sold or rented, and after they had assured the Selectmen that they would be 'good neighbors' on the problem of Wilmington drainage.

ROBERT MCEVOY COMMISSIONED IN U.S. NAVY

Robert W. McEvoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick McEvoy of 7 Kiernan Avenue, was commissioned as Ensign, on June 10th after graduating from the Officer Candidate School, at Newport, R.I.

Ens. McEvoy is a graduate of Tufts College. The 18 week course at Officers Candidate School prepares graduates for duties as junior officers afloat and ashore.

Harold Radochia, of Park St.
concerning damages to his property by the recent reconstruction of that street under 'Chapter 90' funds.

Radochia brought with him a projector, to show his property, in color, before and after the construction. He had lost about 15 feet off the front of his property, including some large stones, part of a rough wall, and a number of tulip bulbs and other plants that he had valued. He stated he felt his had been one of the nicest homes in the area, prior to the reconstruction.

The split arose as a result of Radochia's method of making his claim. Radochia told the board that he wasn't trying to see how much money he could get, but rather to have his driveway improved to a point where it was comparable to its condition before the work, and other matters of a similar nature.

The claim had not been entered within the one year period allotted by law, and Selectman De Felice felt that it was a case of 'too bad', even though it transpired that Ra-dochia had visited the then Town Manager, before the year was up, and had written a letter to Town Counsel Philip Buzzell, on Calabrese's advice
Selectmen Black and Brooks on the other hand, felt that where Radochia was acting on advice of a town official he was entitled to the protection of the town, and were willing to settle the matter in Ra-dochia's favor.

Further discussion was tabled
by the Selectmen, pending advice from the Town Counsel.

KATHLEEN HOBAN IS BRIDE

Miss Kathleen Mary Hoban, daughter of the late Deputy Chief of Police and Mrs. Francis Hoban, of 16 School Street became the bride of Richard James Scanlon Jr., the son of Mr and Mrs Richard Scanlon, 11 Highland Avenue, in a 10 am Nuptial Mass, at St. Thomas Church, Saturday.

A full length gown of silk organza and chantilly lace, with a Sabrina style neckline, a bodice of lace, and with tiny seed pearls fastened throughout, was the gown of Miss Hoban as she approached the altar.

Her chapel length train was of lace and organza, and a finger tip veil fell from a crown of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis.

The Matron of Honor was Mrs. Richard Harrington, of Reading a sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Mrs John Cullen, of Wakefield, a friend of the bride, Miss Beatrice Fenlon of Wilmington, a friend of the bride, Miss Ann Hoban of Wilmington, a sister of the bride, and Mrs. Paul Rossi of Lawrence, a friend of the bride.

The attendants were in matching full skirted mint green organza dresses with mint green picture hats.

The Matron of Honor carried a bouquet of yellow roses and the bridesmaids carried baskets of spring flowers.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Francis S. Hoban Jr., and the Rev. Father Edmund Croke was the officiating clergyman.

Mr. William Scanlon, of Wakefield, a brother of the groom, was the best man, and the ushers were Mr. Robert Scanlon a brother of the groom, Mr. John Callan, a friend of the groom and Mr. Rodney Morrison, a friend of the groom, all of Wakefield, and Mr. Richard Hoban, brother of the bride and Mr. Joseph Loughlin, a friend of the groom, both of Wilmington.

A reception was held in the Hillview Country Club, in North Reading.

For the reception the mother of the bride wore a blue lace dress, with chiffon overskirt and a matching blue hat, with a corsage of white gardenias, while Mrs. Scanlon Sr., was in a gown of rose beige lace with a picture hat of light and dark beige, and wore a corsage of yellow roses.

The honeymoon is being spent in Nassau, in the Bahamas.

The bride's going away costume was a pink and white silken coat dress, with a matching veil like hat, and she wore a white rose corsage.

The new Mrs. Scanlon, a member of the class of 1953, Wilmington High School, is an airline stewardess, for the Northeast Air Lines. Her husband matriculated at Wakefield High School, and Boston College Class of 1955. He is a member of the Wakefield Knights of Columbus, and is a drug salesman, for the Schering Company.

After their return from the honeymoon, the couple will make their home, after June 18th., at the Longhill Gardens in Springfield, Mass.
